

Graduate Certificate in Local Government Management

Information and Requirements

Core Courses

- Local Government Management
- Human Resources Management
- Government Financial Management and Budgeting

Location and Times

Classes will be held at the City of Plano building or UTD, one session per week, from 4:00 PM until 6:45 PM during a normal academic semester.

Time Commitment

Classes will take place at a time when many employees would normally be on duty. Arrangements must be made by participants to ensure that adequate coverage is in place for normal operations. Overtime and/or compensatory time cannot be earned by the participant during class time in the program.

Credit Hours and Costs

Participants will earn a total of twelve (12) credit hours. The City of Plano will pay 100% of the tuition for 12 hours of graduate level courses at UTD. (Note: the employee will be responsible for the purchase of books and all materials that are required for participation in the courses, and for the UTD application fee(s). Late fees will be reimbursed by UTD after late enrollment this one time only.)

Director of Budget and Research

Graduate of the Program

"The Local Government Management Program is sponsored by UTD and the cities of Plano, Garland and Richardson. It was one of the most rewarding experiences I have had here at the City of Plano. You not only learn so much from the instructors, but you also learn from the other attendees from the other cities. We all learned from each other."
